Hustling VillageEntertains Barton Clubs.

The Book and Thimble club met October 4th in the chapel of the Congregational church with the Barton clubs as guests, fifty members and forty guests being present. Glorious weather, in fact, the usual "Barton weather," favored the clubs and an enjoyable afternoon was spent. Mrs. E. E. Doe was hostess and received the visitors at the door, while Mrs. F. J. Kinney, Mrs. L. M. Kinsley, Mrs. M. M. Taplin, Miss Florence Gillis and Mrs. O. W. Locke acted as reception committee. After a few words of welcome from the president, the following program was carried out: Piano duet, "Italy," Misses Harris and Whipple, followed by a delightful encore, "Russia," government and political division of Vermont and map talk by Mrs. S. H. Pearson, was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Piano solo, by Miss Whipple was much appreciated, while Miss Eliza Eaton entertained and amused her audience by her delightful paper on, "Laws Concerning Women of Vermont." This was followed by a charming song, "When the Gray of the Sky," by Mrs. Lillian Woodbury, after which Mrs. M. M. Taplin, Mrs. G. A. Magoon and Mrs. C. D. French very ably in three-minute talks showed us "What Change Should be Made in Vermont Laws." Song by the quartet, "Night Has a Thousand Eyes," and an encore entitled, "Four-Leaf Clover," closed the program. Mrs. A. G. Fletcher and Miss Grace Austin served dainty refreshments and a social hour was spent.

Popular Young People Wed.

A very pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mrs. Mary Ordway on School street Wednesday forenoon of last week when her daughter, Marion Frances, was married to J. D. Corley of Johnson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Warner of Barton before immediate relatives and a few chosen friends. Both contracting parties are well known in Orleans where Mrs. Corley has for a long time been assistant postmistress and a prominent member of O. H. S. alumni association. Mr. Corley was for several years assistant treasurer at the Central Savings Bank & Trust Co., and is now treasurer of the savings bank at Johnson, where Mr. and Mrs. Corley will reside. A host of friends rejoice at their success.

Miss Mabel Parlin is visiting in Lacombe, N. H.

Loren Emery.

Loren Emery, who has been in ill health for some years, and recently a great sufferer, died Sunday evening, Oct. 8th. Mr. Emery was born March 21, 1834, in Washington, and spent his early life in that town, Corinth and East Burke. He was for many years engaged in farming in Corinth. He moved with Mrs. Emery to Orleans eight years ago, making their home first at Nathan Simpson's later at Jerre Marston's, and more recently in the Frank Churchill residence on Prospect street. Mr. Emery leaves a widow. Services will be conducted at the home at 2 o'clock Wednesday. Burial will be at Corinth.

Injuries Cause Amputation of Arm.

Mrs. Cleasby, Wells and Lanphear were called to the Somers farm between here and Irasburg, one day last week to amputate an arm for Mr. Campbell. Mr. Campbell was severely injured by being caught in the belt and fly wheel of a gasoline engine used in connection with a circular saw rig. The arm was so badly crushed that amputation above the elbow was necessary.

Accepts Call to Congregationalists.

Rev. R. A. Hamilton of Hartford, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Congregational church and will begin his duties next Sunday.

The October meeting of the Canadian Circle was held with Mrs. Isaac Keys Friday afternoon, Oct. 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Fletcher spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Gardyne at Montgomery Center.

J. E. Lyon has so far recovered as to be able to be moved to the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. A. Sylvester.

Mrs. Souther and daughter, Florence, who have been visiting at the home of Mrs. Celia Perkins, have returned to Morrisville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Kinsley, and daughter Thelma, are spending a vacation in Winthrop, Mass., and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hooker of St. Johnsbury, who have been spending a few days at the Valley House, have returned home.

H. B. Smith, who has been in the meat business here for the past 25 years, has sold his interest to his partner, C. E. Jenkins.

Mrs. Harry Robinson and children, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Morse, have returned to their home in North Hatley, P. Q.

All will be glad to know that I. D. R. Collins, who was for a time very ill at the home of his son in Middlebury, was able to return home Monday.

Mrs. Harry Dickens, Mrs. M. L. Pearson, Mrs. L. S. Nye and Mrs. W. B. Guild are attending the W. C. T. U. convention which is being held at Barre.

The Mothers' Club meeting which was to have been held last evening, was postponed on account of the dance and reception for the boys from the Mexican border.

M. M. Taplin and Colby Stoddard spoke at the Lowell Grange fair last Wednesday evening. Mr. Taplin spoke of the folly of war and Mr. Stoddard of the folly of jury lawsuits.

Dr. Minor C. Baldwin gave a very fine pipe-organ recital at the Congregational church Sunday afternoon. Although not largely attended it was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

A. D. Beede, Helen Beede, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dickens and daughter Doris, Carl Willey, Randolph Turnbull and Miss Dyke attended the football game at Stanstead, Saturday.

The electric plant will be shutdown Sunday from 9 o'clock a. m. to 5 o'clock p. m., if the weather is suitable for outdoor work, in order that certain repairs may be made on the plant.

The Orleans members of Co. L have all returned to their homes here and have resumed their old positions. Dr. Webster is back at the dentist chair again ready to take up business where he dropped it so suddenly last spring.

School Notes.

The Orleans football team played that of Stanstead, Saturday, Oct. 7, at that place and were defeated by a score of 30 to 0.

Frank Lacourse and Albert Caron have gone to Burlington as overseers of the Orleans high school exhibit there. Last year Orleans won third prize at the convention at Rutland and this year the exhibit seems to be even better.

Miss Heidger's classes in expression are working on some plays to be given either the last of October or the first of November.

The hike taken by the grammar school in charge of Miss Hay and Miss Chandler proved to be a very enjoyable event. Bacon was roasted and with coffee and sandwiches a delightful supper was prepared.

High school closes Wednesday night to give the teachers a chance to attend the state teachers' convention at Burlington, Oct. 12, 13 and 14.

The following teachers are planning to attend the teachers' convention at Burlington: Miss Loretta Dyke, Miss Harriet Myers, Prof. A. G. Fletcher, Amory Seaver, Miss Sadie Lothrop and Miss Ruth Heidger.

Methodist Episcopal Church Notes.

The preacher for tonight in the services being held at the Methodist church will be the Rev. C. W. Kelley of Albany. Everybody cordially invited.

Sunday services. Sermons by the pastor at 10.30 a. m., and 7.15 p. m. Bible school following the morning service, to which the entire congregation is invited to remain.

The evening service at 7.15 will open with a praise service, which will be followed by a short sermon by the pastor. We shall be glad to welcome the public to these services.

The special meetings will be continued through next week. It is expected a different minister will be present each evening. We bespeak your cooperation by your presence.

The W. F. M. S. met with Mrs. Gilmore Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 3. Devotionals and business were conducted by the president. The treasurer's report showed that $79 had been sent to the conference treasurer.

THERE'S one thing about clothes that young men ought to be particular about

STYLE

NOT the freakish, faddish ideas you see in some clothes; that isn't style. There's something quite different from that in real style. A stylishly dressed man is one whose clothes fit, and who has an "air" of being well dressed. The "lines" of the garments are right. That's the thing so many young fellows just miss; it's the fault of "cheap" clothes generally.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

are style designers; every detail of a coat is carefully planned to give to the wearer the right air; the proper effect. It's a valuable asset to any young man; it counts for a good deal more in his business success than most young men realize. And the only way to get it is to go where it is, and get clothes that have it.

Varsity Fifty Five Models

for young men are designed with the utmost care to all details of correct style. See our Varsity Fifty Five Model Overcoats. If you want a nice clean cut overcoat for auto wear, or a nice dress overcoat for old or young men let us show you some, even if don't want to purchase now.
